

MULTI-MEDIA MODEL RELEASE & FERPA AUTHORIZATION

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize The Arizona Board of Regents, for and on behalf of The University of Arizona, and its employees and agents (“University”), to videotape, film, audio record, and/or photograph me and my activities in the Recordings identified below.

I hereby assign to the University all right, title, and interest in and to the Recordings, including but not limited to intellectual property rights. I authorize the University, irrevocably and in perpetuity, to reproduce, distribute, publicly display or perform, and/or prepare derivative works of the Recordings, including my voice, image, and likeness contained therein, for non-commercial or commercial purposes, without condition or restriction, in whole or in part, in any media, whether now known or later developed, throughout the world.

I hereby release the University from any and all claims for arising out of or in connection with the Recordings, including but not limited to claims for compensation, libel, defamation, false light, rights of publicity, invasion of privacy, moral rights, and copyright infringement.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (“FERPA”) grants students certain confidentiality rights with respect to their education records. Generally, the University must have a student’s written permission before it may release information from their education records.

I hereby authorize the University to distribute or use the Recordings identified below as follows: in The University of Arizona marketing materials.

I understand that I am not required to waive my rights under FERPA as a condition of receipt of service or benefits from the University. This consent is voluntarily given for the entire period of my enrollment in the University and thereafter. I may revoke this consent at any time by notifying the Marketing and Brand Management department via brand@arizona.edu in writing.
